Florida Voters Get in the Know!

Reproductive Health Bills in Process for the

2019 Florida Legislative Session

HB 49  Incarcerated Women: "Dignity for Incarcerated Women Act", requires correctional facilities to provide incarcerated women with feminine hygiene supplies as well as other basic healthcare products.

HB 235  Abortion: Requires physicians to examine woman obtaining abortion for presence of detectable fetal heartbeat. It would make it a third-degree felony to perform abortions "when a fetal heartbeat is detected." The bill also redefines a fetus as an "unborn human being" categorized as such "from fertilization until live birth."

SJR 284  Medicaid Expansion: Proposing the creation of a new section of the State Constitution to require amending the state Medicaid plan to provide Medicaid coverage to persons under age 65 who have an income equal to or below 138 percent of the federal poverty level.

HB 227  Access to Clinics: Makes it a misdemeanor crime to intentionally injure, intimidate or interfere with patients or workers entering abortion clinics, and it prohibits intentionally damaging or destroying a reproductive health services facility.