CRIMINAL OFFENSE EXCLUSIONS to AMENDMENT 4 UNDER SB 7066 (F.S. 98.0751)

Amendment 4 excludes convictions for felony sexual offenses and murder.

Florida Statute 98.0751 (Senate Bill 7066) expands the definition of “murder”, to be an intentional killing and adds three other types of killing to the list of exclusions that do not require intent. Please read the statute for guidance; CLICK HERE for the statute 98.0751.

Florida Statute 98.0751 (Senate Bill 7066) also essentially defines “felony sexual offenses” to be those where a person is designated a registered sex offender. More precisely, under the statute, a “felony sexual offense” is defined in Florida Statute 943.0435. Please refer to the statute for additional guidance; CLICK HERE for the statute 98.0751.
